

We hold a legacy of over 50+ years in the construction business. After years of expertise in the field of construction and repair, I have an eye for every detail and what value it holds in everyone's life. Hence we are entering to produce quality residences, a project so flawless and up to par. Being a family-oriented man, I deeply understand the value of a family and throughout my life, I have always tried to provide my family with complete happiness.

Completeness for everyone differs and has unique benchmarks but to me I will feel complete when I see my parents blush with joy with their friends at their beloved ADDA, when they can go around in the easy-peasy area for shopping while I am at peace. Also, when my child is over the moon while chilling in playground under safety & security. My wife, when she can have her pampering time at the spa, unbothered fitness time at the gym and where she finds like-minded friends to make the best of her free-time. Coming to myself, I imagine myself sipping a cup of hot coffee on the sky-deck where the cool breeze is running through my hair and a newspaper in my hand, go for a jog in open green space and relish every day in the plethora of worlds-best amenities.

SERENITY

SO MUCH TO SEE, DO, LIVE.

After a busy day full of hustle, when I spend satisfactory time with my family at the home I have always dreamt of, my happiness quotient stands tall & grand. In the serenity of open green spaces, I tend to lose myself in the beauty of mesmerising nature. On the weekends we splash the waters of joy, jog where the canopy of leaves is welcoming us. Life is at cloud nine where daily doses of enlightenment and rejuvenation are right around the corner.

The aim to bring together a close knitted community where your social, emotional, physiological, culture and social well-being is taken excellent care of.

UNVEILING THE TRINITY: IRA, ISA & ORA

The three majestic towers, aptly named after their profound meanings, symbolize the harmonious fusion of ancient wisdom and contemporary elegance.

- Ira, named after Lord Brahma, the creator, stands as a symbol of boundless creativity and architectural grandeur.
- Isa, meaning Supreme Lord, signifies the pinnacle of opulence, offering unparalleled elegance and sophistication.
- Ora, derived from the word “Now”, captures the essence of living in the moment, where every second becomes a cherished memory.

Together, these three towers form a powerful symbol of limitless possibilities and transformation. Welcome to a realm of magnificence and fulfilment. Welcome to Ira, Isa & Ora!
